In no cases will refunds be made for subscriptions that have 180 or fewer days remaining.

The grace period for online access after a subscription has ended is 30 days. Perpetual access for canceled subscriptions to volumes/issues subscribed to is available through Portico.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

The Journal of Studies on Alcohol and Drugs (2007–present) is the oldest substance-related journal published in the United States, formerly the Journal of Studies on Alcohol (1975–2006) and the Quarterly Journal of Studies on Alcohol (1940–1974).

JSAD is a multidisciplinary journal, publishing research on all aspects of the use of, abuse of, and dependence on alcohol, illicit substances, and inhalants; tobacco use and dependence; and the misuse of prescription medication. The range of topics includes, but is not limited to, the biological, medical, epidemiological, psychiatric, social, psychological, legal, public health, socioeconomic, genetic, and neuroscientific aspects of substance use.

At www.jsad.com, the journal hosts more than 4,000 articles, including all issues of the Journal of Studies on Alcohol and Drugs (2007–present), the Journal of Studies on Alcohol (1975–2006), and the Quarterly Journal of Studies on Alcohol (1940–1974) (plus supplements for each title). Active subscribers gain access to the full range of articles and titles hosted on the journal's website. The journal is published by Alcohol Research Documentation, Inc., based at the Center of Alcohol & Substance Use Studies at Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, Piscataway, NJ, USA.
